

Ex. 6 Personal Privacy (PP)

Professional Experience

Victims of Communism Memorial Foundation, Washington, D.C.

September 2017 – present

Government Relations Assistant (September 2017-September 2018)

Government Relations Associate (September 2018-Present)

- Assisted with multiple initiatives of the Victims of Communism Congressional Caucus, including writing a floor speech for Representative Cathy McMorris Rodgers, and writing a letter on behalf of the Caucus condemning Jean-Claude Juncker's decision to speak at the unveiling of a Karl Marx statue in Trier, Germany.
- Arranged over 30 introductory meetings with offices of Members of Congress of the 116th Congress to inform them about the mission of the Foundation and update them on the Foundation's recent initiatives.
- Wrote daily internal report with updates on relevant political developments on Capitol Hill and in former and current communist countries.
- Compiled over 15 reports to date on foreign countries including information on their political systems, makeup of their legislatures, and recent political developments.
- Assisted in securing the participation of 23 Members of Congress and 17 foreign Ambassadors in Host Committees for the week-long 2017 Centennial Commemoration of the Bolshevik Revolution.
- Aided in supervising government relations intern each spring, summer, and fall semester.
- Wrote profiles on Chinese officials responsible for human rights violations to be recommended to the State and Treasury Departments for Global Magnitsky sanctions.
- Wrote profiles on 30 foreign statesmen and human rights activists listing their criteria of eligibility for the Foundation's Truman-Reagan Medal of Freedom.

The Heritage Foundation, Washington, D.C.

Alumni Ambassador

April 2017 – present

Elected to serve as liaison with 60 former interns regarding Foundation events.

Center for National Defense- Intern

January – April 2017

- Researched and summarized 7 RAND reports on Department of Defense rapid acquisition projects.
- Assembled 20 selective acquisition reports on joint defense platforms.
- Researched capacities of drones from 5 different countries contributing to long-term Foundation project.
- Participated in Defense Trade Cooperation meeting with representatives from the embassies of the UK, Australia, New Zealand, and Canada.
- Mentored by John Venable, former U.S. Air Force Colonel and former commander of the Thunderbirds.

Fellowships

- | | |
|---|--------------------------------|
| • Claremont Institute Speechwriters Fellowship. | September 2019 – November 2019 |
| • George C. Marshall Fellow at the Heritage Foundation. | March 2019 – October 2019 |
| • America's Future Foundation Writing Fellow. | June 2019 – July 2019 |

Education

Harvard University, Boston, MA

September 2014 – May 2016

Master of Arts in Middle Eastern Studies

- Thesis: Romanian Cultural Identity and the National Independence Movement.
- Scholarship and Award: Center for Middle Eastern Studies (CMES) Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellowship, 2015-2016.

Pennsylvania State University, Harrisburg, PA

September 2009 – May 2013

Bachelor of Science in Political Science, graduated with distinction

Selected Recent Publications

⋮
⋮
⋮
⋮
⋮

Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy

Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy

Languages

- Fluent: Romanian, Hebrew, English, French; Advanced: Arabic.